

FAMILY TREE

Make a family tree to go with your life story. Be sure to include as much information as possible, including complete names, places of birth, dates of births, marriages, and deaths. Leave blanks for information you weren't able to find. Perhaps you will be able to find it later.

An example has been provided above. You might use a better program on which to construct your tree. Use color and creativity as well.