

Rules For Future Generations

If you had to live the rest of your life by three rules you established today, what would those rules be? Write the rules and explain why you and other generations would benefit from each.

Consider whether these rules will work for others and how; why you think these rules will help guide you through life; what these rules say about you.

Rule #1:

Rule #2:

Rule #3: